➤ Partner & Firm Profile

Prof. Dr. Tobias Lenz is an attorney and partner in the renowned corporate law firm Friedrich Graf von Westphalen & Partner (FGvW), and has almost 20 years of professional experience as legal counsel. In addition to being an expert for product liability law, he is also known for his expertise in insurance law, a subject which he studied for his doctorate. He is professor for international business law and the head of the liability and insurance law at the Rheinische Fachhochschule Cologne.

The FGvW law firm is a corporate law firm that consults and maintains excellent relationships with major international corporations as well as numerous mid-sized companies. The law firm has offices in Freiburg and Cologne, where Dr. Lenz is in charge of the team for insurance law. He is supported by his partner Carsten Laschet and five additional associates: Mike Weitzel, Antje Clausmeyer, Alexander Hammer, Paul Lambertz and Julia Schmitz, who also specialize in various fields of the law and therefore offer and guarantee a particularly extensive legal consulting scope, which ranges from out-of-court settlements to complex transactions, damage monitoring and litigation.

"Our law firm is dedicated, looks for solutions, and works quickly. That is the standard for our clients that we want to hold ourselves to, now and in the future," says Dr. Lenz. Thanks to his long and varied experience as well as his excellent know-how of the subject matter, Dr. Lenz is equally known and appreciated by his clients and opponents alike as extremely competent and professional. He is particularly valued for his business perspective, which always keeps an eye on a reasonable cost-benefit ratio and practical results. Eloquence, charisma, and the ability to fully represent his client's interests are some of his main strengths.
